

Win a cookery course on the Isle of Wight

Win a masterclass for four with Michelin-starred chef Alexis Gauthier at The Priory Bay Hotel

olive has teamed up with the Isle of Wight's leading luxury hotel, The Priory Bay Hotel, to offer you and three friends the chance to enjoy a unique cookery masterclass with Michelin-starred chef Alexis Gauthier.

Alexis, who is executive chef at The Priory Bay Hotel's sister restaurant in London, Roussillon, has recently taken over the kitchens and menus at Priory Bay and will be launching a new cookery school there this winter. Alexis uses quality ingredients sourced from the hotel's immediate surroundings wherever possible, and from across the British Isles. Roussillon is one of the few fine dining restaurants in London where vegetables are central to the menu and have equal billing to meat and fish.

If you're the lucky winner of our prize draw, you and three friends will enjoy two two-hour cookery sessions with Alexis, plus a weekend of culinary treats, including a trip to the Isle of Wight's Garlic Farm and visits to some of the island's producers and growers. You'll stay in luxury rooms with spectacular sea views at The Priory Bay Hotel for two nights, and dine in the hotel's two restaurants, the fine-dining Regency Island Room and The Priory Oyster, which specialises in seafood. You'll get to taste some of the finest seasonal cuisine on the island with wines recommended by Roussillon's award-winning sommelier, Roberto Della Pietra.

And when you want to explore, this spectacular hotel is set in 70 acres of coastal garden, complete with a private beach, six-hole golf course, and tennis courts so you'll be spoilt for choice.
